

Plymouth May Day

Festival of Music & The Movement

Music Night - May 1st 2015

Festival with Film and Workshops - Saturday 2nd May

May Day is International Workers Day - celebrated in over 100 countries across the globe, with events to rally against exploitation and oppression, and campaign for workers' rights worldwide. Plymouth is holding a festival of ideas and actions for peace and social justice.

In Plymouth we will Rally at the Devonport Guildhall on Saturday 2nd May. 11:00am - 5:30pm

Programme includes:

End Austerity Rally 11:30am

Defending Palestine - film and workshop from 1pm

Meet and question your local election candidates 2pm

Campaign against Climate Change workshop 4pm

Friday night, 1st May, is Music Night with Robb Johnson

"The real deal when it comes to songwriting" - Mike Harding, BBC Radio 2 hear his inspiring songs at www.robjohnson.co.uk

A full evening of bands and singers with licensed bar and campaign stalls at the Devonport Guildhall.
Free Entrance!

Saturday is Campaigns Day, 2nd May

A Free Festival day of film, theatre, ideas workshops and trade union and campaign stalls, championing peace and social justice and challenging austerity and privatisation. For the welfare of working people - against racial discrimination. For women's rights and equality - challenging homophobia and domestic violence. For a truly National Health Service - challenging rationing of services and the private profiteers.

Sponsored by the Fighting Back union:

www.unitetheunion.org

For a living income, not Low Wage Britain!

No Cuts, No Privatisation!
Renationalise Rail & Mail!
Defend Welfare Benefits!
End Austerity Now!
Protect the NHS!

To book a stall and for more information, contact Tony Staunton on 07858 489264 or go to www.plymouth-tuc.org.uk